Title of the event: Expert talk "Lead by example - Ways to be successful leader"
Coordinator: Prof. Jayshree Upadhyay
Venue:	Newton Hall, 4th Floor, D building	Date:	12/7/2017

Abstract:

Expert talk "Lead by example - Ways to be successful leader" was organized by ASOIT Computer Dept under CSI Chapter. There's an old saying about the difference between a manager and a leader: "Managers do things right. Leaders do the right things." As a leader, part of your job is to inspire the people around you to push themselves and, in turn, the organization to greatness. To do this, one must show the way by doing it himself/herself leading teams and managing successful projects.
